

CARTER PHOTOGRAPHICS

ARCHITECTURAL / REAL ESTATE

TIM CARTER OF CARTER PHOTOGRAPHICS dabbled in photography long before he attended the Maine School of Photographic Arts under the tutelage of Howard Bond, master photographer.

Presently he works as an architectural photographer, assisting builders, designers and real estate agents with marketing their work and is photographer and publisher of Grand County Living Magazine and Dine & Play of Grand County, Colorado.

He has been a professional photographer for 45 years, specializing in architectural photography for the past 25 years.

“Professional architectural images can convey positive messages for the client, and are needed for website and print advertising, as well as for archiving business portfolios. If you are a realtor selling high-end homes, then you need professional images to capture that high quality. It’s imperative for businesses to have great images!”

Carter Photographics is a master in digital post production. All final images are high quality computer files for both print and web projects. Large format images that can be purchased to enhance your office or home.
